FACT:

Over 1.6 million women employees are suing Wal-Mart for gender discrimination in pay and promotions.

Our Families Deserve Better than Wal-Mart this Holiday Season!

It's the holiday season, a time for giving, sharing, and family - except at Wal-Mart. Here are the facts about Wal-Mart's anti-family policies:

Wal-Mart is the subject of the largest gender discrimination lawsuit in the history of the United States.

The lawsuit claims Wal-Mart systematically discriminated against women employees by denying them promotions and paying them less than men.

Wal-Mart fails to provide company health care to 54% of its employees, many of them women.

1 out of every 2 children of a Wal-Mart employee lives without health care or is forced onto public health care.

Wal-Mart has repeatedly broken child labor laws, both overseas and in the United States.

Wal-Mart's new restrictive attendance policy punishes workers who need a day off to take care of a sick child.

This Holiday Season, THINK before YOU shop.
