

Thinking about running for public office?

The newest member of Seattle's City Council, Teresa Mosqueda (pictured at right), is one of dozens of union members around Washington state who have run for public office after attending PATH TO POWER POLITICAL CANDIDATE TRAINING.

The Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO — in partnership with the national AFL-CIO — is hosting another Path to Power training. Spread the word and mark your calendars!

March 28-30, 2018 — Yakima, WA

Red Lion Hotel Yakima Center — 607 E. Yakima Ave., 98901

Path to Power training teaches union members and local activists how to run for public office to build power that will positively influence our communities. Topics covered include crafting an effective message, creating a campaign plan, fundraising, how to talk to targeted voters, and building a campaign team. Whether you're considering running for school board or city/county government, this training is for you!

For more info and to request an application, contact: April Sims, WSLC Field Mobilization Director at asims@wslc.org - 206-281-8901