

Take the STAND

The Stand is the online newspaper for Washington's working families. Unlike commercial newspapers, The Stand features news and opinion that focuses on creating and maintaining quality jobs, improving our families' quality of life, and promoting policies that will restore shared prosperity. This free daily service of the Washington State Labor Council and its affiliated unions has won national awards for design and content. You should take The Stand!

here's how

GET IT VIA EMAIL. The Stand's subscribers receive an email by 10 a.m. each weekday morning with that day's new reports. To subscribe, individuals should click here at www.thestand.org.

BULK SUBSCRIPTIONS. If you have a list of members, family, or friends that you would like to subscribe to The Stand, email david.groves@thestand.org and we will add them. Type the names and email addresses in your message to us, or attach your database or document with that information.

Each daily email includes an "unsubscribe" link at the bottom so people can easily be removed from the list, if they choose.

LIKE US ON FACEBOOK.

Click the Facebook icon (beside the email subscription link above) and you'll be directed to The Stand's Facebook page. Once you're there, click "Like" and your Facebook news feed will include our latest reports.
