

At 7 a.m. on a Monday or Thursday between now and June 25, the Supreme Court will rule on Janus.

The court is expected to impose so-called “Right to Work” on public employees throughout the nation. This is the culmination of a decades-long legal attack financed by right-wing billionaires and corporations.

On Janus Decision Day, Washington’s workers will show we are more resolved than ever to stick together!

Monday or Thursday, TBA from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm

EVERETT — Worker’s Memorial Courtyard (by the Snohomish County Courthouse) facing Wetmore Ave.

* OLYMPIA (Mondays only, starting at 2 p.m.) — State Capitol, 416 Sid Snyder Ave. SW, Olympia, WA, 98504

SEATTLE — Harborview Medical Center, 325 9th Ave., Seattle, WA 98104

SPOKANE — Rotary Fountain in Riverfront Park, 507 N. Howard St., Spokane, WA 99201

TACOMA — Federal Courthouse, 1717 Pacific Ave, Tacoma, WA 98402

VANCOUVER — Fort Vancouver Way & E. Mill Plain Blvd., Vancouver, WA 98663

On Monday and Thursday mornings, check www.TheStand.org between 7 and 8 a.m.

or go to the website now and SUBSCRIBE and you’ll get an email notification when the decision happens and where Solidarity Rallies are planned.

Union members, both public and private sector, will rally at lunchtime that day in Everett, Olympia, Seattle, Spokane, Tacoma, and Vancouver to say:

We are more resolved than ever to stick together and fight back!

